Join us on a twenty-six day tour to explore from Vienna, Austria, through the extraordinary beauty of Slovenia and the Istrian Region of Croatia, to Venice, Italy. We travel by scheduled rail services, on regular and chartered ferry, by private coach and aboard the luxurious SS Venezia – our home on the Venetian Lagoon. The tour is led by Owen Johnstone-Donnet and Takako Ishige of SJR, and we are accompanied by local European travel expert Martin Kopetschke. (+) Martin was instrumental in the planning and led our East German rail tour in 2016 and 2025, and our Eastern European tour in 2019 - his in depth knowledge of the countries we are visiting, makes this unique itinerary compelling.

Friday 18 September 2026 – to Graz and Zagreb (B/D)

An mid morning departure for Graz. Our train journey from Vienna to Graz crosses the Semmering - one of the most beautiful and historically significant rail rides in Europe - gliding through a landscape that feels both dramatic and serene. Departing Vienna, the scenery shifts from gentle plains to steeper, forested hills, and soon you're climbing the famous Semmering Railway—a UNESCO World Heritage marvel of 19th-century engineering. The route winds over graceful stone viaducts and through short tunnels, offering weeping views of deep valleys, rocky outcrops, and alpine villages tucked into the mountainside. After cresting the Semmering Pass, the line descends into the open, sunlit landscapes of Styria, where vineyards and soft green hills signal your approach to Graz, Austria's warm, Mediterranean-feeling second city. We break for some short sightseeing and lunch, then continue in the mid afternoon from Graz south, reaching the border area near Spielfeld. Crossing into Croatia, the scenery opens into farmland, vineyards, and small villages as the line follows parts of the Sava River basin. Through towns such as Maribor and Celje offering glimpses of historic church spires and forested hills, before the final stretch approaches the Croatian capital through low hills and rural countryside before arriving at Zagreb Glavni Kolodvor, the city's grand 19th-century main railway station. We transfer to our hotel for two nights, with dinner included tonight, and overnight in Zagreb.

Saturday 19 September 2026 (B) – Zagreb

We begin in the atmospheric medieval streets of Gornji Grad (Upper Town), where you can walk across St. Mark's Square to see the colourful tiled roof of St. Mark's Church and visit the nearby Lotrščak Tower, famous for its daily cannon firing at noon. From there, stroll down the historic Tkalčićeva Street lined with cafés before riding the tiny Zagreb Funicular to the elegant Lower Town, where grand Austro-Hungarian buildings frame parks known as the Lenčić Horseshoe. Browse fresh produce and local delicacies at Dolac Market, enjoying the relaxed café culture that defines Croatia's capital. In the afternoon explore the quirky exhibits of the Museum of Broken Relationships or admire art at the Mimara Museum, before ending the day with a walk through Zrinjevac Park and dinner at leisure at a traditional restaurant. Overnight in Zagreb.

Sunday 20 September 2026 (B/D) – to Opatija, Croatia

Our journey from Zagreb to the Adriatic coast at Opatija offers a dramatic transition from inland plains to mountainous karst scenery and finally the sea. The train travels west across the gentle farmland of northern Croatia before reaching the wooded hills of Gorski Kotar, where the line climbs through tunnels, deep valleys, and dense forests in one of the most scenic railway sections in the country. As the train descends toward the coast, glimpses of the blue Adriatic Sea begin to appear, before our arrival at the elegant seaside resort of Opatija, known for its grand Habsburg-era villas and palm-lined promenade along the coast. The region of Istria developed thanks to its favourable position; it was on the way of Aquileia founded by the Romans as their military base for Istria and the Northern Adriatic. Istria was under the rule of many different empires, but today the region is known for its beautiful scenery, truffles, olive and wine growing. We transfer to our hotel on the shores of the Adriatic and enjoy dinner together. Overnight in Opatija.

Monday 21 September 2026 (B/L) – exploring the Istria region to Pula

We depart by coach from Opatija to Pula – with a wonderfully varied journey along the Istrian coast, blending elegant seaside scenery with ancient history. We follow winding coastal roads and glimpses of the Adriatic's deep blue before reaching Pula, where the city's Roman heritage immediately sets the tone. A highlight is the magnificent Pula Arena, one of the world's best-preserved Roman amphitheatres, which you can walk through to feel its scale and atmosphere. From there, wander the old town's marble streets to the Forum, the Temple of Augustus, and the Arch of the Sergii, stopping for coffee or gelato in one of the shaded squares. After a relaxed seaside lunch, we head to Pula's waterfront for a final dose of history before driving back toward Opatija, where the late-afternoon light over the Kvarner Bay makes for a beautiful return. Enjoy an evening stroll or swim from our hotel, and then dinner at leisure. Overnight Opatija.

Tuesday 22 September 2026 (B/L) – Rovinj and Buzet

We travel by coach and boat to explore more of the Istrian Peninsula. Rovinj is perhaps coastal Istria's star attraction – an intensely charming place, the old town is contained within an egg-shaped peninsula, webbed with steep cobbled streets and small squares, and punctuated by a tall church tower rising from the highest point. Originally an island, it was only connected to the mainland in 1763 when the narrow channel separating it was filled. Buzet is Istria's gastronomic heart, offering plenty of original local food that is prepared traditionally in atmospheric taverns and acclaimed restaurants. Buzet is a town of truffles, and this highly valued food item is used in many dishes, giving them a specific taste and a breath of luxury, just like the acclaimed olive oil which is used in all Istrian dishes. In Buzet you will be offered biska, local rakija (spirit) made of komovica, white mistletoe and four types of herbs or liqueurs from medicinal herbs. The tasty dishes go well with Istrian wines - the local Malvasia and red Teran. We enjoy a lovely luncheon of local produce at Stara Ostarija in Buzet, and return in the late afternoon to our accommodation in Opatija. Dinner is at leisure.

Wednesday 23 September 2026 (B) – Opatija

Enjoy a relaxing day at leisure in and around Opatija. Perhaps enjoy the seaside elegance, Habsburg-era charm, and lush Mediterranean scenery, with a relaxed stroll along part of the famed Lungomare, the 12-km coastal promenade that winds past grand villas, ornate hotels, and quiet pebble coves, offering constant views of the shimmering Kvarner Bay. Stop for morning coffee beneath the palms of Slatina beach before wandering uphill into the quiet streets lined with 19th-century Austro-Hungarian villas. Visit Villa Angiolina, now home to the Croatian Museum of Tourism, and explore its beautifully landscaped park filled with exotic plants collected by aristocrats of the past. After a seafood lunch on the waterfront, continue to the nearby viewpoints in Volosko, a charming fishing village where boats bob in the small harbour and narrow alleys lead to art studios and cafés. Dinner is at leisure and overnight Opatija.

Thursday 24 September 2026 (B/L) – to Umag, Istrian wines and to Trieste

We travel by coach to explore Umag and its surrounding region - coastal beauty, historic charm, and a taste of Istria's laid-back lifestyle. On arrival we will wander through Umag's compact old town, where narrow stone lanes lead to the small harbour and the Church of St. Peregrine. Enjoy a coffee by the waterfront as fishing boats come and go. From there, we head north along the rocky coastline to explore the clear coves and beaches that give Umag its resort atmosphere — perfect for a swim or a quiet walk by the sea. In the afternoon, we venture into the inland hills to experience Istria's countryside, visiting the village of Grožnjan, known for its artist studios, stone houses, and sweeping views over vineyards and olive groves, then stop at a local winery to sample regional Malvazija and Teran. Then in the afternoon on to Trieste.

Trieste is a unique and atmospheric port city where Italian, Slavic, and Austro-Hungarian influences blend into a character found nowhere else in Europe. Set between the Adriatic Sea and steep limestone hills, it feels both grand and slightly nostalgic, with wide Habsburg-era boulevards, elegant cafés, and the vast Piazza Unità d'Italia opening directly onto the waterfront. The city's multicultural past is visible in its mix of neoclassical palaces, Orthodox and Catholic churches, and the imposing Castello di San Giusto overlooking the harbour. Trieste's literary heritage—linked to writers like James Joyce and Italo Svevo—adds an intellectual charm, while the surrounding Carso cliffs and nearby seaside villages give the city a dramatic natural backdrop. In the late explore nearby our hotel, before some free time and a relaxing dinner at leisure overlooking the Gulf of Trieste. Overnight Trieste.

Friday 25 September 2026 (B) – Trieste

Our day of sightseeing combines a rich blend of seaside views, grand architecture and cultural depth. We start the morning at Piazza Unità d'Italia, one of Europe's largest seafront squares, where you can enjoy a coffee at an historic café while watching the light shift across the Adriatic. From there, we wander through the elegant streets to the Canal Grande, crossing little bridges and perhaps visiting the Serbian Orthodox Church with its bright mosaics. Climb or take the elevator up to San Giusto Hill to explore the cathedral, ancient ruins, and the castle, all offering sweeping views over the red-tiled city and port. In the afternoon, catch a bus or tram out to Miramare Castle, a fairy-tale 19th-century residence set in a lush coastal park that's perfect for a peaceful walk. Return to the city as evening falls for a seafood dinner along the waterfront, and finish your day with a leisurely stroll on the Molo Audace, where the sea breeze and soft lights give Trieste its quietly romantic atmosphere. Dinner at leisure and overnight Trieste.

Saturday 26 September 2026 (B) – Trieste to Ljubljana

After a relaxed morning we depart from our hotel for the journey to Ljubljana. Enroute visit we Postojna Cave and explore this underground marvel aboard the world's first underground cave railway. Postojna Cave is the only place where you can see the most precious Brilliant in the form of a cave formation - the caves boast towering mountains, murmuring rivers and vast subterranean halls. It is a real challenge for explorers and the cradle of speleobiology. See cave fauna known as olms which have been captivating people's imagination since time immemorial - they remain something of a mystery even today and are considered the largest cave-dwelling animal that can go without food for up to 10 years. Ljubljana's history is a tapestry of ancient roots, medieval resilience, and cultural reinvention shaped by many powers. Originally settled by prehistoric tribes and later home to the Roman city of Emona, the area evolved into a medieval trading hub under the protection of a hilltop castle. Through the centuries, it came under Habsburg rule, becoming an important provincial centre known for its baroque churches, scholarly life, and growing artisan class. Devastating earthquakes, especially in 1511 and 1895, reshaped the city and paved the way for architectural renewal, most notably through the visionary designs of 20th-century architect Jože Plečnik, who gave Ljubljana its distinctive urban identity. In the modern era, Ljubljana became the cultural and political heart of Slovenians, later serving as the capital of independent Slovenia after 1991—an evolution that reflects both its strategic location and its enduring creative spirit. Dinner tonight is at leisure and overnight Ljubljana.

Sunday 27 September 2026 (B/D) – Ljubljana

Ljubljana is a charming, human-scaled capital where elegant architecture, leafy riversides, and a lively cultural scene blend into one of Europe's most inviting small cities. The Ljubljanica River winds through the centre, lined with outdoor cafés and crossed by distinctive bridges like the Triple Bridge and the Dragon Bridge, all watched over by the hilltop Ljubljana Castle. Its old town is a mix of Baroque churches, colourful façades, and cobbled lanes, while the surrounding neighbourhoods reveal the playful, modernist touch of architect Jože Plečnik. With its abundant green spaces—especially the vast Tivoli Park—and a relaxed, youthful energy driven by its university population, Ljubljana feels both sophisticated and warmly intimate, a place where history and creativity meet in a gentle welcoming atmosphere. Stroll through the attractive, pastel-hued streets of Ljubljana, it should come as no surprise to learn that it was once an acclaimed centre of art and learning. In the 15th century, scholars, sculptors, and other artists came from across Europe to live in Slovenia's capital, and with them came a penchant for the Baroque and Renaissance styles that define the Ljubljana you see today. The Fountain of the Three Carniolan Rivers, a masterpiece by Venetian sculptor Francesco Robba that stands before the distinctive face of the Town Hall. Visit the open-air market, parliament, congress square and the Triple Bridge. The tour ends with a ride in a glass-walled funicular up to Ljubljana Castle to tour the historic fortress and enjoy its famous panoramic view over the city. We return to the hotel for an included dinner, then overnight Ljubljana.

Afterwards we visit the 11th century Bled Castle, which clings dramatically to a cliff above the lake; explore the attached museum, printing workshop, and walk the terrace for panoramic views of the lake and the Julian Alps. Return to Bled for some culinary delights at the Hotel Triglav. The hotel offers an immersive culinary experience rooted in history, local ingredients, and refined hospitality. At its heart lies Restaurant 1906, named after the hotel's founding year, where Chef Aleš Fende leads a kitchen that weaves together traditional Slovenian dishes and French-inspired techniques. The cuisine also carries a personal touch: Chef Fende draws on recipes passed down from Nežka, the great-grandmother of the hotel's owner, whose mushroom soup, beef brisket ("bržola"), and walnut štruklji still appear in the menu. In addition to food, the hotel's wine cellar is a hidden gem: you can join tastings of more than 150 Slovenian wines, with expert sommeliers guiding you through the region's terroir. We plan to offer a culinary experience this afternoon / evening, with details to be confirmed. Dinner is included and overnight, Bled.

From nearby Ukanc, we take the cable car up Mount Vogel for sweeping panoramas of the lake and mountain peaks. We plan to the dramatic Savica Waterfall, where a short forest trail leads to one of Slovenia's most famous cascades. In the afternoon, relax with a swim, rent a small boat on the lake, or enjoy lunch at a lakeside café before returning to Bohinjka Bistrica for a quiet evening stroll through the alpine town. Dinner at leisure and overnight Bohinjka Bistrica.

The town's architecture reflects its multicultural past under the Habsburg Empire, blending Italian, Austrian, and Slavic influences in churches, palaces, and civic buildings. Along the riverside and in the squares, cafés and trattorias give a relaxed, small-town feel, while nearby vineyards and the gentle slopes of Collio invite exploration of the region's celebrated wines. Gorizia's proximity to the border also gives it a subtle international flavour, where Italian and Slovenian cultures meet in a quiet, scenic setting. Dinner is included tonight, and overnight Gorizia / Novo Gorica.

Sunday 5 October 2026 (B/L/D) – the Doges Palace, Castello District, St Mark's Square and Basilica

With an early morning arrival at Doge's Palace, you'll be able to marvel at the estate in total peace. Wander through a Venetian neighbourhood and experience daily life in an authentic Venetian residential quarter. Later in the evening, cap the day off with a private once-in-a-lifetime experience at an after-hours lighting ceremony inside St. Mark's Basilica without the crowds. Venice has no need to designate a pedestrians-only historic district because no cars are permitted within the island city - all transportation is by foot or water.

This morning arrive at the Doge's Palace and most famous plaza in Italy - St. Mark's Square. Venetians elected their first doge, or duke, in AD 697 and began building the palace around AD 800.

The palace complex, as it exists now, mostly dates to the 14th and 15th centuries, and it brims with jaw-dropping artistic gems, including Tintoretto's wall-sized Paradise and works by Veronese, Tiepolo and Titian. Throughout its history, Venice has been a supremely political city. Those convicted of crimes were led across the Bridge of Sighs to prison. Follow their footsteps to the prison and gaze into the cells. Casanova escaped from one of these cells. Other less-fortunate prisoners whiled away their time by inscribing graffiti on the walls, which you can still read.

You will continue this exploration by strolling through the historic Castello district. It's the largest of Venice's six districts. Back in the 13th century the Castello district was home to the Arsenal, where Venice's ships were built. (Venetians boasted that they could build a complete ship in a single day.) This is also where the famous Biennale art exhibition now takes place. As you pass 800-year-old homes, you'll hear the murmur of the soft local dialect through the open windows. Clothes flap from lines strung over tiny canals and kids kick soccer balls along cobbled alleys. It's a real, living, breathing neighborhood, not just a historic site.

In addition to its well-known museums, Venice is also home to some highly specialized ones: Displays at the Correr are devoted to the history of Venice; the Museo della Musica contains 17th and 18th-century musical instruments and exhibits about composer Antonio Vivaldi. Known as the Red Priest for his hair colour, Vivaldi taught music to the daughters of Venetian noblemen. The Museo Ebraico examines the history of the Jewish community that was confined to an island known as Ghetto Nuovo. The latter was one of Europe's wealthiest and most cultured Jewish communities, made up in part with refugees from the Spanish Inquisition.

In the evening visit Saint Mark's Basilica. The doors of this icon are specially opened for you tonight. You will see the glorious church in the evening light and without the crowds. You'll find it almost impossible not to gaze heavenward as you enter St. Mark's. High overhead, magnificent domes are sheathed in mosaics telling the story of the New Testament, but don't miss the intricate pattern of marble and mosaic tile under your feet. Ahead of you is the famous altarpiece made by 10th-century Byzantine artisans who gilded it and decorated it with precious gems, some of which were subsequently stolen by Napoleon. The building, which exemplifies the city's historic connection to Byzantium and the Eastern Mediterranean, was finished in the 11th century and incorporates the remnants of earlier churches.

Golden glass-tiled mosaics line the interior walls and cupolas, giving the church its nickname, Church of Gold. It houses treasures collected by Venetians over the centuries. The relics of St. Mark, patron saint of the city, were stolen from Alexandria, and the Tetrarch, a group of four crowned figures, was looted from Constantinople during the Fourth Crusade. Every successful Venetian voyager returned with something to decorate the basilica—a frieze, a statue—and the result is one of the most stunning works of art and architecture in this amazing city. (Note – in the event of a special event and access is not possible, an alternate experience will be provided.) Overnight S.S. La Venezia.

Monday 6 October 2026 (B/D) – Vicenza or Padua, and Burano

Start your morning in one of two of the Veneto region's UNESCO World Heritage cities, Vicenza or Padua. In the afternoon, you'll reboard the ship for scenic sailing across the lagoon as we head towards Mazzorbo and Burano. In the evening, you may wish to take your free time to stroll into town to appreciate this charming island when most of the tourists have left for the evening. Burano's brightly painted fishermen's cottages are an artist's dream —hot pink, chartreuse, orange, lemon yellow, and more. Set out for Vicenza, a beautiful town famous for its shopping, its architecture, and for being the home of the Teatro Olimpico. Considered by many to be one of the greatest masterpieces of famous 16th-century architect, Andrea Palladio, the Teatro Olimpico is the oldest Italian Renaissance theatre still in existence. A first of its kind, this indoor theatre was crafted in wood, stucco, and plaster, with seating room for 400. Enjoy a captivating light and music show while you're here—an absolute must-see. Afterwards, enjoy lunch on your own in town. Or head to Padua - join your local guide on a walking tour of medieval Padua. Discover the city's great squares, churches and palaces. Padua flourished as a hub of learning and discovery in the 13th and 14th centuries. The second-oldest university in Italy was founded here in 1222, hosting such students as Copernicus and faculty as Galileo. Immediately outside the Palazzo del Bo, the university's first home, you'll see a cafe where revolutionaries met to plot an uprising against Austrian invaders in 1848. Stroll past the largest public square in Italy, Prato della Valle, originally laid out by the Romans and transformed in the 18th century into a graceful, elliptical open space with a serene canal and statues of local nobles. Gaze upon the Byzantine-influenced domes and towers of the vast Basilica of Saint Anthony of Padua, where you'll often find a crowd waiting to offer thanks or prayers. You will have some free time to explore Padua on your own, perhaps stopping for lunch at one of the many delicious eateries in town. Return to the ship, and stroll into town with your Cruise Manager just before dinner to appreciate this charming island when most of the tourists have left for the evening. Burano's brightly painted fishermen's cottages are an artist's dream. Burano is known for its lace-making tradition, handed down from mother to daughter since the first workshop was set up at the end of the 16th century. While you're here, you'll visit a historic lace-making atelier to see some of their delicate work. Then a special Captain's Welcome Reception and Dinner back on board. Overnight S.S. La Venezia.

Tuesday 7 October 2026 (B/L/D) – Mazzorba , Burano, and Murano

Spend the day exploring the northern lagoon of Venice and its captivating islands. Start with a visit to Torcello's famous basilica with an art historian, then stroll through the agricultural island of Mazzorbo and the rainbow-hued island of Burano during your free time after lunch. Alternatively, you can take the afternoon to see the renowned glassblowing artisans of Murano at work. Settled before Venice was founded, Torcello was once the greatest, most populous city in the lagoon. Now, however, only a handful of people live there. Its centerpiece is the basilica of Santa Maria Assunta, the oldest church in the lagoon and a monument to Torcello's lost might.

The doors open early for you, so you can see the stunning 11th-century mosaic of the Last Judgment without the crowds—and with expert commentary from your art historian guide. Murano's glassblowers are renowned for being amongst the best in the world—and how could they not be, with a tradition of craftsmanship dating back eight centuries? Watch a glass-master shape beautiful works of art in their Murano workshop. Before you leave, take some time to roam around the factory's gallery to view works in a wide variety of styles—from tableware to sculptural, traditional to modern. Before we head back to the ship, relax with a cup of coffee at a serene little Osteria on the island. Overnight S.S. La Venezia

Wednesday 8 October 2026 (B/D) – Chioggia

Today you'll admire the sites of charming and coastal Chioggia, one of the most enticing islands of the Venice lagoon. A small fishing port often referred to as a Venice in miniature, with a well-preserved tradition due to its relative lack of crowds. Choose from a range of excursions today, from cycling along the coast; visiting Chioggia's lively markets; board a genuine Adriatic wooden sailing boat, a bragozzo, to take in the island from the clear blue waters of the lagoon, then return to shore for a visit to Tenuta Ca' Zen, a beautiful Venetian villa with a fascinating story. Here, you can explore the expansive grounds, antique stable, family chapel and more before rejoining the group for a tasting of local products, which include organic olive oil, wines, honey and cheeses. Or with a sommelier as your guide, will learn about the long history of winemaking in the Veneto region. Visit Dominio di Bagnoli, one of the oldest wine producing properties in Europe, for a private tasting. A variety of wines are produced here, with the most popular being made from an indigenous grape variety. The beautiful property of Dominio di Bagnoli is also a farm, where rice, grain and other products are grown. Return to the ship for dinner and overnight S.S. La Venezia.

Thursday 9 October 2026 (B/L/D) – Chioggia and to Venice

Set sail today on the waters of Italy's largest nature reserve park, the UNESCO-protected Po Delta. Enjoy refreshments onboard your boat as it meanders leisurely for 2 hours through the scenic wetlands. Nature-lovers and bird watchers will especially enjoy this tour for the opportunity to spot a multitude of beautiful and rare species that call the Po Delta home. Red deer and Camargue horses can be found on the forested land portion of the park, and if you're lucky you might catch them grazing near the water. Easier to spot are storks, purple heron, and a colony of over 10,000 pink flamingos. Alternatively set off for the Euganean hills to discover one of Europe's most majestic castles. Enjoy a guided tour of a palace so beautiful that it became a resort for the Habsburg Dynasty before being returned to Italy following the first world war. After marvelling at its frescoed walls, continue on for a guided walk around its beautiful gardens or take some free time for yourself to explore as you please before returning to the ship for dinner and overnight S.S. La Venezia.

Friday 10 October 2026 (B/L/D) – Venice

As your water taxi glides past narrow side canals and the Canal Grande, you'll arrive in style at the Rialto Bridge. The iconic stone arch bridge sits at the narrowest point of the Canal Grande and holds numerous shops and restaurants. Back when Venice was at the height of its power, only the Rialto Bridge spanned the Grand Canal—and the city's famous Rialto markets for fish and produce have sprawled at its feet as long as the bridge has arched over the water. Here you'll find violet artichokes from the nearby island of Sant' Erasmo, honey from the salt marshes, white asparagus from Giare—and Venetians shopping for their dinners in the historic heart of the city. Join them as you explore the colorful, noisy and fun arcades with your guide (the ship's chef often accompanies this expedition), who knows Venice's culinary arts intimately.

Freshly caught local fish are sold to knowledgeable customers under the Gothic arches of the covered fish market, which was probably originally built in the 11th century. At the end of the tour (and after some free time where you should have plenty of time to enjoy a gondola ride), join your guide at a bacaro (a casual wine bar) for the Venetian version of happy hour, called ombra e cicchetti—a drink (often a glass of prosecco) with a bite of something delicious—perhaps crostini with salt cod spread or another Venetian fish specialty. Alternatively get an early morning start to see a side of Venice most of the tourists miss—The Dorsoduro. One of Venice’s six main sestieri, or districts, The Dorsoduro is quieter than some of the more popular districts and thus has an authentic, easy going atmosphere. Enjoy a walking tour around this picturesque side of town before moving on to visit a gondola artisan. See the craftwork that goes into Venice’s iconic sailing vessels and meet some local masters at work. You can also choose to learn of an integral feature of the Carnival of Venice - masks are known for their intricate beauty and wide variety of styles. See for yourself how these masks are created at one of the top handmade mask ateliers in town. Return to the ship for our final evening aboard – a special Captain’s Farewell Reception and Dinner. Overnight S.S. La Venezia.

Saturday 11 October 2026 (B/L/D) – disembark S.S. La Venezia

After breakfast disembark the ship and our tour concludes. You may like to spend more time in Venice, or head to Milan, Bologna, Florence or Rome for sightseeing. Depart from Venice Airport, or head to Milan for a greater choice of flights.
